Glasgow official taxis can stop outside the main terminal next to the buses (the most side of terminal 2). Keep in mind that the only taxis admitted to stop here are the authorized Taxi Renfrewshire Council. The cabins approved by the Council are the white ones and cannot be pre -arranged. If you have booked a private taxi of Glasgow, they will give you a place to find. Uber drivers cannot stop at the taxi outside the terminal. With other pick-up and drop-off options are available for Glasgow airport taxi? Most of us remember, Glasgow airport was the scene of a terrorist attack attempt in June 2007. Since then, further restrictions have been put on vehicles waiting for the airport queue. Many taxi drivers of Glasgow and the wider area are not allowed to park near the entrance of the multiple parking areas. However, there are some that are not restricted (after this it will change the price). It is important to know about the additional debt when agreements are made for your taxi Pick Up airport. It could get expensive if you are not attentive. The historic city of Stirling (a 35 mile drive or taxi ride from the airport which takes about 50 minutes) is traditionally acknowledged as the gateway to the Highlands and makes a good destination for a day trip from Glasgow. Worth a visit are Stirling Castle, the Wallace Monument, the Church of the Holy Rood, the Old Town Jail and of course Bannockburn, site of the famous 14th century battle won by the Scots over the English. Stirling also makes a good base for hill walkers. For anyone interested in the Arts and Crafts Movement and Art Nouveau, a visit to the National Trust for Scotland's Hill House, an inspiring testament to his architecture and design. See National Trust Scotland for opening times. The house is 23 miles from the airport and takes around 35 minutes by taxi. For animal lovers a trip to Blair Drummond, Scotland's only African safari park, makes for an exciting day out with the kids! The park is 40 miles and under an hour's drive from Glasgow airport. From the comfort of a safari bus, available to visitors without their own transport, you can see a wide range of animals, as well as visiting some on foot and by boat. In addition there are other attractions for children such as a pirate ship, bouncy castle, pedal boats and giant astraplade.
